THE REPORT OF OUR NAVY

SOME OF THE FEATURES OF SECRE-TARY WHITNEY'S REPORT.

A Full Description of all Our New War Vessels Now Building or Contemplated to be Submitted to the Next Congress.
The Skeleton of Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The forthcoming report of the secretary of the navy will refer to the great progress made since his previous report in building up the new navy.
It is intended that every feature provided for by congress will be amply referred to.
For the benefit of the next congress it is understood Secretary Whitney will have prepared by the bureau of construction and repairs elaborate descriptions of every vessel now building or the plans for which have been agreed upon. This will include the five great monitors, the cruisers, gunboats, plans for harbor defense, the armored battle ship and cruiser, the pneumatic dynamite gunboat and the torpedo boat.

Very few men in public life seem to realize that there are now in process of building, authorized to be built, or nearly completed, what would make a fleet of over twenty vessels of modern type. A detailed account of the progress of the work, together with a general description of each vessel, will enable senators and representatives to readily understand that at last a comprehensive plan for building a navy worthy of our flag is making rapid progress.

In this connection naval officers point with pride to the fact that not since the war has congress ever shown so much confidence in a secretary of the navy as it has in the present head of that department. It gave Secretary Whitney $2,000,000 to expend upon means for harbor defenses, leaving the scope of the plan entirely to his judgment.
A board is now considering the plan to be submitted for his approval. The probability is that monitors will be the main feature, as there are already five of these formidable vessels nearing completion. The general plan of defense will include auxiliary vessels to operate in conjunction with the monitors. The appropriation of $2,000,- 000 will be expended in providing for this class of defense.

But perhaps the confidence of congress and the country in the integrity and capacity of Secretary Whitney can be most forcibly exemplified by a brief summary of the entire bulk of appropriations which have been made for the increase of the navy to be disbursed by him. The closing session of the Forty-eighth congress appropriated $3,- 000,000 for cruisers and gunboats; the first session of the Forty-ninth appropriated $7,- 000,000 for two ironclads, and $1,500,000 for a large unarmored cruiser, and increased the amount for the Newark from $1,100,000 to $1,300,000; also, $2,500,000 to complete the monitors, exclusive of armament; also,
$350,000 for a dynamite cruiser and $100,- 000 for a first class torpedo boat. The last session of the Forty-ninth congress appropriated $4,100,000 for two nineteen-knot cruisers and two 1,700 ton gunboats; $4,000,- 000 toward the armament of all the authorized ships, $6,000,000 for armor and $3,000,- 000 for coast defense as above set forth. The grand total up to March 4 last was $27,300,- 000 in two years' administration. This is nearly $13,650,000 a year, or nearly equal to the largest amount appropriated for new construction during any single year of the civil war.

Washington's Tomb All Right.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The story that the head of Washington was stolen from Mount Vernon and carried to Paris by curiosity hunters is pronounced by Dr. G. M. Toner as an unqualified falsehood. The remains of Washington were removed from the old and original coffin about fifty years ago and placed in the marble sarcophagus made for that purpose, which was not only to keep out the air, but so constructed and fastened that it would be next to impossible for anybody to violate the sanctity of the seals without having uninterrupted access to them for many hours. When the remains were transferred from the old coffin to the marble receptacle many members of the Washington family were present, with persons of prominence, and they all certified to the fact that the skeleton was intact.
After the sarcophagus was put in its place the iron grated door was locked and the key thrown into the Potomac. The old lock is still in good preservation and has never been tampered with.

During the rebellion the grounds at Mount Vernon were held sacred, and the hand of the vandal was never known to have degraded any part of the tomb or its surroundings. The last resting place of Washington has been vigilantly watched ever since the present tomb was erected. Though some distance from the mansion, every device known has been used for many years to alarm the superintendent of the grounds.
Now electric wires communicate with the house, making it impossible for anyone to even attempt to open the iron doors.

The story, therefore, that the skull of Washington was ever removed or even profaned by the touch of vandals, Dr. Toner says, is utterly without foundation. In 1849 the Washington heirs loaned to Mr.
Clark Mills the original cast of Washington's face, made during life by the celebrated sculptor Houdon. It was never returned, but in its place a copy, which Mr.
Mills claimed was in better condition than the original, was sent to the Mount Vernon mansion. It subsequently passed into the possession of Mr. McDonald, the sculptor, and is supposed to be in his possession still.
Speculation was rife for a time as to who had the original. It was not, however, stolen, and is probably still in New York.

The New Congressional Library.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—J. L. Smithmeyer, architect of the congressional library building, in his first annual report to the chairman of the commission, says that the work on the foundations of the structure has thus far progressed very satisfactorily, and he expresses the opinion that they will be entirely completed by the 1st of January next.
The report says that in response to a circular letter issued to quarrymen in May last, a large number of fine specimens of marble, granite and other stone contemplated to be used in the construction of the building have been received. The building when completed will be the largest structure in Washington with the exception of the capitol, and will cover 111,000 feet of space.

It will cover about 21,000 feet more than the new state, war and navy building; about 14,000 feet more than the British museum library; about 12,000 feet more than the Royal library of Bavaria, and about 1,000 more feet than the new German parliament building.

The Fisheries Negotiators.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The president has invited Mr. William L. Putnam, of Maine, and Mr. James B. Angell, of Michigan, to act with the secretary of state in the negotiation for a settlement with Great Britain of the disputes growing out of the questions connected with the rights of our fishermen in the territorial waters of the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland.
Both of the gentlemen have accepted, and it is believed by Secretary Bayard that their fitness for their important duty will be recognized by the country. Mr. Putnam has been of counsel for the United States for the last two years in cases arising under law and treaty in connection with the fisheries dispute, and Mr. Angell is president of the university of Michigan and has had experience in international transactions, having been one of the commissioners by whom the latest treaty with China was negotiated.

Mr. Putnam is a member of the Democratic party and Mr. Angell of the Republican party. The secretary said that their selection was not only a recognition of the two political parties but a geographical recognition. The interests of the western states lying along the Canadian border were equally great with the interests of the New England states in securing a settlement of the difficulty with Canada. From the information received here it is expected that Mr. Chamberlain will leave England about the end of October and that the negotiators will meet in Washington by the middle of November.

New Military Post Located.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The secretary of war has initiated the establishment of the new military post near Denver, Col., by the promulgation of a presidential order reserving for the purpose the southwest section of the southwest quarter of Section 5, Township 5 south, Range 68 west, Colorado.

PLUCKY COOPER.

One Bank Cashier Who Would Not Take a Hint From a Burglar.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 3.—The Farmers' bank at Newcastle was entered at an early hour yesterday morning by masked robbers.
Their movements awoke the cashier, who seized his pistol and fired, wounding one of the intruders. His companions picked up the fallen man and quickly carried him out the front door, making their escape. The bank floor is marked with blood where he fell. The robbers got no booty, and left behind them a kit of burglars' tools, a wheel-barrow and a ladder. They are supposed to have come and gone by way of a boat in the river near by.

The burglars immediately on entering the building overpowered, bound and gagged William J. Back, United States consul at Nuremberg, who was home on a leave of absence and stopping with Cashier Richard G. Cooper. When Mr. Cooper came on the scene he was confronted by one of the burglars with leveled revolver and the mandate, "Don't say a word." "I won't," replied Cooper, instantly leveling and firing his own pistol and wounding the robber, who returned the shot without harming Cooper.
Blood marks led to the suspicion that the wounded robber fell into the river and was drowned in attempting to escape.

The Heaton Boat Crew.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Scotchmen on the Thistle seemed to be a little disconcerted this morning. They were in pretty good humor, although unable to satisfactorily explain to themselves how their cutter was so badly beaten. Mr. Bell still insisted that a twenty miles to windward and return course is unfair, but would like to meet the Volunteer in a run to leeward alone. He says that the Thistle will enter in any contest with the big sloops where the course suits him. He prefers a square course, but would accept a triangular one. He says he did not expect to win yesterday, yet he did not give up the race until 1 o'clock. A miscalculation as to the position of the outer mark was made, and by this several minutes were lost. Mr. and Mrs. Bell will return home on the 12th inst.

Counterfeiter Brought Back.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—George Connors, wanted in this city for counterfeiting, was brought here from Chicago yesterday by United States Marshal F. H. Marsh. He was met at the depot by Deputy Marshal Bill McIlvain, who looked him up in the county jail. He is charged with being a member of the notorious Manchester building gang that was broken up last summer by the United States secret service men. He is a partner of Gus Ballew, the leader of the gang. He escaped at the time of the latter's arrest. He was arrested in Chicago on the suspicion of being implicated in a grand larceny case. He was, however, released, but was arrested before he left the courtroom by secret service detectives who have been on the lookout for him.

Disgraceful Fight Between Preachers.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Oct. 3.—At the "Sanctification" or "Holiness" camp, in this city, Rev. J. Dennis, one of the evangelists, preached a sermon on the subject of "Glorification." The Rev. Robert Chisholm took exceptions and called him to order, but the speaker continued. Chisholm therefore mounted the rostrum and began to speak.
Each tried to cry the other down, and, failing in this, they clinched, and each tried to pull the other off the platform. During the excitement some on blow out the lights and the meeting came to an abrupt termination.
Each had the other arrested, and at the trial the Rev. Chisholm was fined $5, which he paid, and the Rev. Dennis $10, but he was unable to pay the fine and now lies in jail in consequence.

Deaths of a Cat Bite.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Miss Annette Halliday, cousin of Sydney Lucas, the novellist, was recently bitten by a pet cat. The wound caused her hand to swell, and she constantly uttered screams which her relatives say resembled the cries of a cat. The case was considered fatal but the patient is now improving.

THE ENCAMPMENT CLOSES

THE GRAND ARMY VETERANS LEAVE THE CITY OF MUD.

Judge John F. Rea, of Minneapolis, Elected Commander-in-Chief—A Brief History of His Life—A Grand Banquet
Given the Veterans at the Lindell.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—The annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic has ended, and the veterans have nearly all gone. The ballot for commander-in-chief yesterday afternoon resulted as follows:
Judge Rea, 294; Gen. Slocum, 153; Gen.
Anthony, 93; Gen. Grier, 18; Gen. Sherman, 1, and Gen. Warner, 1. Judge Rea was declared elected, and thanked the encampment for the honor.

The rules were suspended and Nelson Cole, of Missouri, was elected senior vice commander. The junior vice commander was John C. Linnahan, of New Hampshire. Gen.
Lawrence Donahue was elected surgeon general and Edward Anderson was elected chaplain-in-chief.

The committee on the Logan monument recommended that an equestrian statue be erected in Washington. The officers of the encampment were then duly installed.

In the evening a banquet was given the veterans by the citizens at the Lindell hotel. Col. D. P. Dyer delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Gen. Fairchild. The toasts and speakers were as follows:

1. "Our Country"—Response by Gen. Lew Whita.
2. "The President of the United States"—
Gen. John M. Palmer.
3. "Lincoln and His Administration"—
Hon. Hannibal Hamlin.
4. "The Army"—Gen. W. T. Sherman.
5. "The Navy"—Admiral D. D. Porter.
6. "Our Comrades Who Never Came Back"—Bishop F. Howe.
7. "The Loyal and Patriotic Women"— Gen. C. H. Grosvenor.
8. "The Rank and File"—Corporal Tanner.
9. "The Grand Army of the Republic"— Gen. S. S. Burdette.
10. "The War Governors"—Hon. A. G.
Curtin.

During the banquet the rank and file were enjoying a camp fire at Schneider's garden given by the St. Louis poets.

Commander-in-Chief John P. Rea was born October 13, 1840, in Lower Oxford township, Chester county, Pennsylvania.
His father was a woolen goods manufacturer. Young Rea went to school there until 1850, then taught school at Piqua, Ohio. He enlisted in Company B, Eleventh O. V. I., in 1861, and after four months' re-service was made a second lieutenant of Company I, First Ohio cavalry. March 12, 1862, he was first lieutenant, and in April of the next year a captain. Soon after he was brevetted major for gallant conduct. During the war he was only absent from duty ten days, seven as a prisoner and three in the hospital. He completed a classical course in Wesleyan college, Delaware, O., in June, 1867; became a law student in the office of
I. J. Dickey at Lancaster, Pa., and was admitted to the bar in 1868. President Grant appointed him assessor of internal revenue of the Ninth district of Pennsylvania in 1869 and he held the office until it was abolished in 1873. He returned to law and removed to Minneapolis in 1875, and became editor of the Minneapolis Tribune until May, 1877.
Again he returned to his law practice, and was soon elected probate judge, to which office he was re-elected. Afterward he was made judge of the district court. He has been commander of a local post, commander of a state encampment, and senior vice commander of the National encampment, G. A. R., and is a member of the Loyal Legion.

IN INDIANAPOLIS.

The Presidential Party Safely Arrive in Indiana's Capital.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—The presidential party arrived here three minutes ahead of time. President and Mrs. Cleveland expressed delight with the capital's welcome.
Fifty thousand people lined the street from the landing to the state house. The court house grounds were filled with school children to whom Mrs. Cleveland gave special and gracious attention. The Duckworth club failed to reach the city in time for the parade. The weather is threatening, but there is no rain. The visitors were escorted to the south front of the capitol, where a platform, canopied and decorated in the Federal colors, had been prepared. From this platform Governor Gray delivered the address of welcome.

The run from Washington was made about on schedule time. The points at which brief stops were made were Baltimore, York, Pa., Harrisburg, Millington, Altoona, Pittsburg. The train arrived at Steubenville, O., at 11:18, but the president and Mrs. Cleveland had retired for the night. Newark was reached at 3 a. m., and Columbus at 4:20. A considerable crowd was present at the Newark depot, but the president was not seen. After reaching Columbus the train quickly sped on toward Indianapolis.

Violated the Passenger Law.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The bark Carrib, Capt.
Avilo, which sailed hence on September 27 for the Azores and afterwards anchored in the rocks, was towed back to this city last night by the United States revenue cutter Hamlin for violation of the passenger laws.
The vessel is now in charge of a deputy United States marshal.

Will Lose a Leg.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Dan Deppard attempted to board a cable car at Fifth and Walnut street last night, but slipped and his right leg went under the wheels and was badly crushed. He was removed to his home on Walnut Hills by Patrol No. 2.
Amputation will probably be necessary.

Willoware Assignment.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Sarah A. Woods, doing business as Charles A. Wood & Co., 11 Walnut street, in the wholesale willowware, assigned at 11:30 to L. E. DeCamp.
Assets, $2,000; liabilities, $3,000. Preferences, chattel mortgage for $377 to Chatfield & Woods.

MURDER OR SUICIDE.

A Man Found With His Throat Cut in a Cincinnati Hotel.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Yesterday a bellboy rushed into the clerk's office at Hunt's hotel, Vine street, with the startling words: "A man's bleeding on the carpet in the parlor."
The clerk ran up stairs. Lying in the center of the parlor at full length, face downward, the forehead resting on the edge of an overturned chair was the body of a man. A ghastly pool of blood had formed on the carpet at the man's head. In one hand, ti-dily clasped in the fingers, was a blood-stained butcher knife, its blade fully eight inches long. Gaping in the man's throat was a wound reaching almost from ear to ear, from which the blood spurted. A patrol wagon was called and the man removed to the city hospital.

The suicide arrived at Hunt's this morning. He registered in a sprawling hand, hard to decipher: "W. T. Smith, Sterling, Col." He was aged apparently about thirty years, was well dressed and had money. He had been drinking quite heavily all day.
Fifteen minutes before he was found in the parlor dying he staggered into the hotel office, and getting his key started up stairs.
Nothing is known of the man or the cause leading to his attempt at self-destruction.
Smith at the hospital claimed he was from Colorado, and had been tracked 1,500 miles by the man who assassinated him. He says he had reached Moscow, O., he would have been safe. The man is evidently insane. He cannot recover.

Navigation Stopped by Fire.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 3.—Not within the recollection of the oldest settler of Ottawa valley has such devastation been wrought by bush fires in this part of the country as has been the case for the past week. Navigation is suspended in the Ottawa and St.
Lawrence rivers, and the loss to shipping must be enormous, nineteen ocean steamers having been waiting to clear from Montreal for several days. So far only two lives are reported lost. The governor general's residence is in proximity to one of the burning forests, and a strict watch is being kept over it. The governor and his family are still absent in Quebec.
News was received last night that the fire had broken out in the southwestern outskirts of the city and a large force of men went out to protect the lumber piles which are stacked up in the region. News from Lorignal, Thurso, Plantagenet and other places in the valley is to the effect that the fires are still raging and great alarm is felt.

Robber Caught.

KENTON, O., Oct. 3.—The Vermillion robbery, an account of which appeared in this paper yesterday, has been unraveled. It was the boy Varvol who stole the $300 and then inflicted a serious wound on himself to cover his deed. He told the tramp story! but it was not believed. Early yesterday Marshal Flanagan was sent to arrest the boy. On his shirt were found burnt powder marks, and he was about to be taken to jail, when he confessed and the money recovered in a shed where he hid it. He is a nephew of Daniel Vermillion, whose money he took. The boy thought it belonged to an uncle against whom he had a grudge. No prosecution will be made. It is probable that his arm will have to be amputated.

Slow Speed Prevents a Disaster.

ROBINSON, Ill., Oct. 3.—A dastardly attempt was made Friday night by unknown parties to wreck the excursion train on the Indiana & Illinois Southern railway, running between Palestine and Newton to accommodate passengers to and from the Olney state fair. There were four coaches loaded with passengers when the train left Newton, all of whom, excepting about one hundred, were discharged when the train reached the station here at 11 p. m. A little beyond the station two switches had been thrown open where there were embankments. The engine and two cars left the rails, but were still on the ties when the train was stopped, owing to the fact that it was running at a slow rate of speed.

Blaze in a Tunnel.

NEWARK, O., Oct. 3.—A fire broke out in Glencoe tunnel, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, nine miles this side of Bellaire, about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Wheeling fire department was taken to the scene of the fire, and a special train in charge of Superintendent Davies and Manager Peabody was made up at this point for the purpose of taking the Newark department down. The train was to have left here at 11 o'clock, but just as it was on the point of starting Capt. Peabody received a telegram notifying him that the fire had been extinguished and that all trains were running as usual. The damage is small.

Insane Patient Fatally Scaids Himself.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 3.—It has developed that Albert McConahay, a patient in the insane hospital, from Huntington county, died on the 23d inst. from being scalded in a bath tub. According to the statement of the superintendent, the patient was seated in the tub when the attendant turned away to get a towel. As soon as his back was turned McConahay turned the hot water spout, and the boiling water was thrown all over him, his injuries being very severe about the abdomen. This occurred on the 14th, and McConahay lingered in great agony until the 23d of September, when he died.

Perished in a Burning Building.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Fire broke out this morning in the English kitchen, a cheap lodging house at 234 Jefferson avenue.
When the fire department arrived the upper windows of the fourth story building were alive with half-dressed lodgers screaming for help. All except three were rescued in safety. One of the three was burned almost beyond recognition, the second died from suffocation before removed from the building and the third, Charles Peterson, aged twenty-two, single, though reasonably alive, is in a critical condition, which renders his recovery extremely doubtful.

Failure of a Conference.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 3.—The conference between the striking miners and Linderman & Skeer, extensive operators, which took place yesterday, was futile, the firm refusing to grant an advance or to arbitrate.
The men resolved not to go to work at the old rate, and many of them will seek work elsewhere. The prospect is gloomy for the union.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will be delivered to any part of the city at 6 cents a week, or one year for $3.

THE DAILY BULLETIN to any postoffice in the United States, postage prepaid, at twenty-five cents per month or three dollars per year.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 3, 1887.

The present administration, if it is a Democratic one, is getting rid of the public debt right along. The reduction for September amounted to about $16,000,000.

A correspondent at Mt. Carmel says the corn crop south and east of that place has been generally cut, and the yield will be good with some exceptions. Some of the fields will turn out equal or better than an average. The grass has revived since the late rains, and pasture fields are green.

"The Massachusetts Republicans have met in solemn convocation," says an exchange, "and while lauding protection, they demand such a reduction of internal revenue as will make tobacco and whisky practically free from taxation. Then they adopted a temperance plank. It is not quite apparent how sobriety is to be promoted by cheaper whisky."

The Columbus, O., correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette says: "C. F. Tolliver, of Morehead, Ky., a brother of the late Craig Tolliver, was in the city Friday. He has been traveling of late for the benefit of his health."

It is very generally understood, we believe, that it has been very unhealthy up about Morehead the past summer—especially for one or two families.

An Indiana judge has sent two men to the penitentiary for three years and fined them $500 each for stealing a coat and satchel valued at $20. This is almost as severe a punishment as that meted out to the Wichita drug clerk, who was sent up seventeen years for selling a little whisky out of a soda fountain. What is getting the matter with the judges, anyhow? It will not be safe after awhile for one fellow to take another's life—the punishment of murderers as they deserve is among the possibilities of the near future.

Want Damages.

Suit has been filed in the Mason Circuit Court by the Maysville and Blue Run Turnpike Company against the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company for $2,500 damages. The railroad interferes with the turnpike considerably between this city and Charleston Bottom, running over or so close to it for a distance of about one mile, as to practically render it valueless as a public highway. The turnpike, although in bad condition, is an important one, to the citizens of Charleston Bottom especially. An effort was made by the turnpike company to have the railroad authorities procure the right of way and make the grade for the pike on a bench a little higher up on the hill, or pay a sum equivalent to the cost of same, but no agreement was arrived at, and the court will now be asked to settle the question. Messrs. Wall & Worthington and County Attorney Newell are attorneys for the turnpike company.

Revenue Collections.

General Robinson reports the following as the Internal Revenue collections in this district for the month of September:

Liquor	$15,145 64
Beer	297 75
Spirits	105,588 00
Cigars	918 05
Export	1 25
Tobacco	680 50
Special taxes	490 79
Total	$123,149 93
Grand total from June 16th, 1886, to Sept. 30th, 1887	$4,262,355 11

Pithy Points From Washington.

We would like for men who wink at the rum traffic and have sons to let us know what security they have that these sons will not turn out miserable drunken sots.

We contend that one sober, steady boy is worth more to his parents and friends than all the whisky that has been made since the world began.

We would like for the whisky people to show us anything in all the world that makes men as mean, trifling and villainous as does whisky.

There are some things a town, or city, either, had better be clear of than hogs. Whisky is a very much greater nuisance, as it makes men lower than hogs, or any other of the brute creation.

We don't know how it may be with others, but for ourselves we would rather our boy should turn out embezzler, defaulter, robber, or pirate than a common drunkard.

Show us a boy or man that is drunkard and we will show you one that has no regard for law, at home or abroad.

The Morning Dress.

It is said that a lady's standing in society can easily be determined by her dress at the breakfast table; an expensive, showy costume indicating that the wearer has not yet learned the proprieties. But no one need be afraid of being called "shoddy" if her loveliness is as apparent by daylight as at the hops. Perfect beauty is never the attendant of disease; above all, of those diseases peculiar to women, and which find a ready cure in Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Price reduced to $1. By druggists.

THE KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.

Of the Methodist Episcopal Church—
A Pleasant and Harmonious Session—That Has Been Done.

The annual session of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which assembled at Greenup Sept. 28th, has been a pleasant and harmonious one. About two hundred ministers and lay delegates have been in attendance. Bishop Andrews, of Washington City, is presiding.

The Preachers' Relief Society at the anniversary raised $1,145.

The benevolent collections will show a large increase when reports are all in. There is a general feeling of encouragement among the ministers because of the prospect of a still larger increase in church building in the future.

Amos Boring and J. D. Walsh were elected delegates to the next General Conference, and E. L. Sheppard and C. J. Howes were elected reserve delegates.

The Lay Electoral Conference elected Amos Shinkle, of Covington, Ky., and M. N. Hambleton, of Cattleburg. The reserve delegates are B. P. Tevis, of Shelbyville, and Dr. Atkinson, of Paintsville.

The following candidates were examined and received: John G. Dover, Chas. W. Sutton, Davis P. Holt, Morton G. McNeely, Frank B. Fitzgerald, Frank E. Vance, John College. They were elected to deacon's orders. L. B. Piersal was readmitted on certificate of location. John G. Ragan was admitted from the M. E. Church, South.

Rice, Hart & Ryman.

Rice, Hart & Ryman's Minstrels will give a performance at the opera house next Wednesday night. An exchange says of them: "The company in many respects comes nearer negro minstrelsy than any we have seen for years, and as we understand it, better impersonates the negro character. The vocal effects of Messrs. W. A. Rees, J. Campbell and Will Walling were well received and justly applauded, and the oddities of John Hart a show of themselves. The Sarah Heartburn, of Mr. W. H. Rice, was amusing because ridiculous, and taken all in all the performance may be set down as a satisfactory one."

County Court Proceedings.

M. C. Russell was granted license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors. John Greelish was granted license to retail malt liquors. The application of Joseph Deiner for license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors was granted. License was granted to Frederick Otto & Co. to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors.

LITTLE THINGS.

We call him strong who stands unmoved—
Calm as some tempest beaten rock—
When some great trouble hurles its shock;
We say of him, his strength is proved;
But when the spent storm folds its wings,
How bears he then life's little things?
About his brow we twine our wreath
Who seeks the battle's thickest stroke, Braves flashing gun and saber stroke,
And scoffs at danger, laughs at death;
We praise him till the whole land rings;
But is he brave in little things?
We call him great who does some deed
That echoes from shore to shore—
Does that, and then does nothing more;
Yet would his work earn richer meed,
When brought before the King of Kings,
Were he but great in little things.
—Treasure Trove.

Under a Flag of Truce.

One incident related by Gen. Averell was this: He was on duty with Col. Porter's command at Manassas after the first Bull Run. One day the colonel and staff, with a squadron of cavalry, went out beyond the pickets to reconnoiter, when they saw an equal body of horsemen in Confederate gray approaching from an opposite direction. Col. Porter gave the order to charge, when the other body displayed a flag of truce. The leader of the Confederates said to Gen. Averell, who went forward to meet him, "I am Col. Taylor, of the Confederate States army, and am the bearer of dispatches from President Davis of the Confederate States to President Lincoln of the United States." The dispatches were received and forwarded to Washington, when Col. Taylor said, "This ends our official interview." Then the two opposing forces were surprised to see Col. Porter and Taylor embracing each other, with the exclamations: "Andy, old boy!" "Tom, old fellow, how are you?" A flask of old rye was fished out and the two comrades fraternized. They had been chums at West Point. The dispatches proposed an exchange of prisoners, and were returned by President Lincoln with the endorsement that the United States declined to recognize the south as belligerents.—Alabama Journal.

How He Knew.

Here is a pretty good story of a boy who made twenty-five cents by going to Sunday school when away from home. It has a moral also, and perhaps a warning, for Sunday school orators:

A gentleman, addressing a Sunday school in Newark, described a family in distress, and referred to the disposition a little girl made of a half dollar given to her. He offered twenty-five cents to any child who could guess correctly what she did with the half dollar.

A boy immediately piped up, "Bought a basket with it."

"But how did you happen to guess that?" "Give me my quarter, please sir."

"Yes, but first tell me how you could have guessed that?"

"Give him a quarter, if he guessed it right," said other voices in the rear of the room.

"I was in Jersey City last Sunday, and heard you tell the same story," was the boy's quick reply, on receiving the quarter.

Will Build Another Yacht.

GLASGOW, Oct. 3.—Mr. Muir, of Dunbarton, the owner of the yacht, Mabel, has announced his intention of building a ninety-ton cutter to compete for the America's cup, next year, unless Mr. Bell should again challenge. Mr. Muir, Jr., of Fairlie, will design the new boat, and Mr. Robert Dunlop, of Glasgow, the master of the Majorie, and formerly master of the Cutter Madge, will be the captain of the proposed new Scotch competitor for the America's cup.

Excitement Over a Bank Failure.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 3.—A special to the Press from Norwalk says: "Great excitement exists at Bellevue, this county, on account of the failure of the Bellevue bank, one of the strongest institutions in Huron county, last night. At midnight, Probate Judge Kennon was asked to make out papers of assignment. T. C. Wood was appointed assignee. The failure was caused by poor investments and bad management. The liabilities are about $100,000. Depositors are made secure and will lose nothing. Burdette Wood, one of the most prominent financiers of this section of the state, is president of the stranded institution."

The Bomb Throwers.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 3.—Lawyer Salmon has given the order for a transcript of the record in the Anarchist case, the purpose being to present it to the supreme court of the United States. He says the placing of the order was caused by his desire to limit Clerk Taylor to ten days time in which to prepare the copy. The 15th of October was finally settled upon as the date when the record must be completed. Deputy Clerk Snow at once started to Chicago to engage the necessary number of type writers to complete the work.

A Singular Accident.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Superintendent C. C. F. Bent, of the Ohio & Mississippi road, met with a peculiar accident a few days ago, from the effects of which he is confined to the house. While out on the road he struck a parlor match for the purpose of lighting a cigar. The combustible preparation on the end of the match flew off and found a place of lodgment in his ear passage. It required the services of a doctor to remove the obstruction.

General Hayes Gives a Banquet.

FREMONT, O., Oct. 3.—Gen. Hayes and wife gave a reception from 4 until 7 o'clock Friday evening to the ministers and their wives and laymen and their wives who are attending the Central Ohio Methodist Episcopal conference which is in session in this city this week. The guests numbered about 500. They were royally entertained and banqueted.

Above all other earthly ills
I hate the big, old-fashioned pills;
By slow degrees they'd wear me wend,
And often pause, or upward tend;
With such discomfort they are frangible,
Their good effects amount to naught.
Now Dr. Pierce prescribes a pill
That just exactly fills the bill—
A Peppermint, rather, that is all—
A Pleasant Purgative, and small;
Just try them as you feel their need,
You'll find that I speak truth, indeed.

SUCCESSFUL SESSION.

The Meeting of the Maysville and Mason County Teachers' Association Well Attended.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

The Maysville and Mason County Teachers' Association scored a big success at its initial meeting for the year 1887-1888, held last Saturday at the High School building in this city. There was a very large attendance and the session was pleasant throughout. The main object of the association is to aid in arousing renewed interest in the cause of education, and judging from the attendance Saturday, much good will result from the meetings.

The exercises were opened with scripture reading and prayer by Rev. D. D. Chapin, rector of the Church of the Nativity, followed by music.

Professor C. J. Hall then in a few very happy remarks delivered the address of welcome. This was responded to in the same happy style by W. E. Mitchell, of Minerva.

The subject, "How to Manage Primary Classes," was presented with very interesting and illustrative work by Misses Mary Chambers and Ella Wallace, followed by valuable suggestions from W. E. Mitchell, Miss Eliza Keyes and W. T. Berry.

The meeting was then very agreeably entertained by a reading, "The European Guide," by Miss Anna Knox.

H. B. Collins then discussed the subject of history, and in a comprehensive manner presented the early history of America with all of its environments. He closed with the outline and topic methods of teaching the subject. All were interested and instructed by the discussion.

The association was next entertained by Dr. Honan, with the recitation of "Tell's Soliloquy," preceded by some instructive and pleasant remarks introducing his subject.

The crowning interest of the day followed here, when the President introduced as the personation of the grandest success of the teacher, Professor W. W. Richeson. The venerable man received an ovation from the teachers, and responded in his own modest style, that he had only tried to be before his pupils what he would have them be. But what utterance could be so full of instruction to the thoughtful teacher—the whole life and work of the teacher presented in one sentence.

A very thoughtful and carefully prepared paper on the "Formation of Character, the Work of the Teacher," was presented by Superintendent Galbraith.

At the afternoon session, the first subject discussed was "The Necessity of Increase in the School Fund, and How This May be Accomplished." The subject was presented at length by Superintendent Galbraith. He claimed our public schools are not free schools in every sense of the word, and proved it. He favored county taxation as the best plan of increasing the present school fund, and showed from statistics that $53,000,000 of the school funds of the various States is raised annually by this local taxation, whereas only $14,000,000 is raised by State taxation.

He was followed by Mr. Hayes Thomas, in a very enthusiastic and instructive speech. At this juncture Professor Josiah Wilson took the floor and vigorously favored Federal aid. The quick flash of Superintendent Galbraith's eye told that a storm was brewing. He rose and in a very animated manner went for the Blair bill and the scheme of Federal aid without gloves. He took the ground that it is essentially a political question in every aspect and drags education down into the corruption of politics, closing his remarks with the Latin quotation: Timeo Danaos et ferentes—"Fear the Greeks, even bearing gifts."

The association was then entertained by Miss Knox with a select reading, rendered to exquisite taste: "A Child's Dream of a Star."

The subject of "Percentage" was very instructively presented by Miss Ella Metcalfe.

Prof. Kappes followed with some very interesting thoughts on the subject: "How to Increase Public Interest on Education." He believed the purity of society and the ballot box must be protected by education, and he thought the teacher largely responsible for the lack of interest.

The following resolutions were here introduced and passed: WHEREAS, The Mason County Teachers' Association have been so bounteously entertained;

Be it Resolved, That we extend to the teachers of Maysville our heartfelt thanks and appreciation. May they ever meet with as good treatment as they have this day extended.

Resolved, That the thanks of this association be tendered the very efficient Committee on Entertainment and the citizens, who have so liberally aided them, for the very sumptuous feast to which we have been invited.

Resolved, That the thanks of this association be and are hereby given our gentlemanly Superintendent, L. W. Galbraith, for the able and courteous manner in which he has conducted its exercises, with the assurance that he has won a place in the heart of every member.

Thanks were also voted to Superintendent Galbraith for having perfected arrangements for the monthly payment of the teachers.

The association then adjourned to meet again the first Saturday for November.

THE DINNER.

An enjoyable feature of the day was the excellent dinner served to the teachers and visitors. One of the large basement rooms of the building was converted into a dining hall, and here the feast of good things had been spread. There was plenty for all and to spare.

The Committee on Entertainment, Mrs. L. W. Galbraith, Mrs. C. J. Hall, Mrs. Josiah Wilson, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Fannie Ray and Misses Hannah Moore, Anna Campbell, Ella Metcalfe, Eleanor Wallace, Sallie Burrows, Anna Knox, Belle Golling, Mrs. Lou Ross, Mrs. Berry, and others whose names were not learned, deserved the hearty thanks which all voted them, for the excellent manner in which they had discharged the work set apart for them. That this work was well done may be seen from the bill of fare:

THE remains of Sammie Riley, whose death was noticed Saturday, were interred yesterday afternoon, after funeral services at the home. There was a large attendance of the friends and relatives of the parents and of the little companions of the deceased.

IS the Kenton Circuit Court W. C. Threlkeld, a brother of James E. Threlkeld of this city, has recovered judgement against the Kentucky Central for $600. The plaintiff lives near Morning View, and the suit was for damages to property by a fire caused by a spark from a locomotive.

NOTICE of the dissolution of the firm of Daulton & Henry will be found in this issue. Mr. Henry retires, and will engage in other business. He is succeeded by Mr. J. W. Roden, an experienced cigar manufacturer. The business will be continued at the old stand under the firm name of Daulton & Roden.

THE alleged rapist Frank Pugh, of Fleming County, who is tearing up his bed clothes in the jail here and trying to hang himself, played the same racket while in jail at Flemingsburg. It is very doubtful whether he wants to "shuffle off this mortal coil" as bad as he pretends he does. We venture to assert that he would beg for mercy if a gang of lynchers could once get a rope around his neck.

IN the Campbell County Court last Friday a verdict was rendered in the case of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company against Harry and Samuel Brown for the condemnation of their land known as Coal Haven, near the Newport water works, for railroad purposes, the jury finding in favor of the defendants, and fixing the damages at $12,350. The case will probably be appealed. The defendant are the well-known Pittsburg coal men, and asked $45,000 damages.

A FORMER citizen of this county is coming to the front as one of the crack chess players of the country. The gentleman alluded to is Mr. J. W. Showalter, who was born near Dover, and who resided in that vicinity several years. He is the son of Mr. Benoni Showalter. The Commercial-Gazette says: "The Cincinnati Chess Club was favored Friday with a visit from Mr. J. W. Showalter, the champion chess player of Kentucky. Mr. Showalter has recently spent several months in New York City, where he met the best club players, and speedily made it manifest that he is one of the strongest amateurs in the United States. Mr. Showalter has improved with remarkable rapidity during the last year. He is so near the head of native players that his future is regarded with great interest. We understand that he won a decided majority of his more recent games with Mr. Delmar, of New York."

WM. GREEN, colored, who has been running a restaurant on Market street for several months, skipped out yesterday for other fields, leaving a number of unsettled debts behind him. His cook, Charles Coryell, had Green's property attached this morning to satisfy a claim of $40 for wages.

ONE of the Peck's Bad Boy troupe while passing a field of seed hemp which was about fifteen feet tall, Thursday morning at Tarr's Station, remarked to Conductor John Myers: "That's the prettiest piece of wheat that I've seen this year."—Bourbon News.

WHITE WINGS OF PEACE.

IT IS SPREAD OVER FRANCE AND THE GERMAN EMPIRE.

The Trivial Acts Which Startle the Two Countries and Almost Leads Them to Take Up Arms—The Prospects of a War. Various Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The tone of this morning's dispatches from Berlin and Paris indicates that the tension between the empire of Germany and the republic of France is once more relaxed and there is a prospect that matters may run smoothly until some over-zealous German official or soldier, or some hair-brained French stripling shall again shoot himself into notoriety and his government into trouble. Both the Raon-sur-Plaine incident and the arrest of young Schnabel stirred up a good deal of bad blood, but the disposition on the part of the German government, as evinced by the statement of the German ambassador to the French foreign secretary, to make all possible reparation to the families of the victims of Kauffmann's fatal blunder, and the magnanimity displayed by the emperor in ordering the release of the puerile prisoner at Metz, will have a cooling effect, though it may not be a lasting one.

Whenever a breeze is stirred up on the Franco-German frontier, a thing that often occurs, it has become quite the thing to assume that France is in danger of German invasion, the presumption being that the German government is only awaiting a pretext, however slight, to again march into the French capital, and that France is quaking with fear lest the Germans may be provoked too far. All this sounds very well and no doubt many people, not German, would like to see it come to pass, but there are others who believe that Germany doesn't want to fight. These people see in the trades of the German press against France and Frenchmen, and the appeals to the government to redress real or fancied wrongs committed by agents and servants of the republic not desire to take up arms against France, but fear that France may suddenly decide to take an aggressive step against Germany.

That ultimate war between France and Germany is certain, nobody doubts, but it is scarcely probable that the hostile declaration will be made by the latter. France of to-day is not the France of 1870 by any means, and Germany with all her power and the prestige that still clings to her as the victor in the last war, is not the country to measure swords with a power of whose actual strength she knows little or nothing; or whose military resources she knows to be greater than her own. Opportune resort to bluster has gained for Germany a great deal of cheap glory within the last three years, and in truth the same may be said of France, but the quality of glory that is the reward of success in battle is not likely to be achieved by either for some time to come.

What They Think of the Race. LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Chronicle says: The result of the race is decisive. We must accept our defeat with good grace.

The Daily Telegraph says: The Thistle was beaten handsomely on her merits. The Volunteer is the better and swifter ship all round. The triumph stamps New York builders, as at present our superiors and teaching in the art of designing fast craft.

The Standard admits that the Thistle was fairly beaten, but doubts whether the result represents the Thistle's real form. An examination of the Thistle's bottom, the Standard says, will likely throw some light on the problem.

The Times alone shows some ill-humor and observes: "It is desirable for the interests of yachtsmen in both countries that the cup should occasionally change hands, and it certainly would be a greater triumph for American yachtsmen to win it in English waters than merely to retain it in their own."

The Telegraph says: "We are whipped and honestly beaten, nor ought a single ungenerous word to be uttered impugning the honor and glory of the victors. We are sorry to record the victory, but the Volunteer is a better all-around racing ship."

An Advance Ordered. CAIRO, Oct. 3.—Advices have been received from Massawah to the effect that the king of Abyssinia has ordered his general, Rasaloula, to advance to Massawah in order to forestall the Italians, and that Russia has sent 200 officers, under the guise of priests, to assist the Abyssinians. Active preparations are being made and the campaign will begin about the middle of October.

Buried Alive. CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Clem. Arsterbeck, aged thirty, of Hamilton pike and Blue Rock streets, Cumminsville, while digging a cellar in north Cumminsville, this morning, was buried under eight feet of earth by the bank suddenly caving in upon him. He was terribly injured. Several ribs and his left leg were broken. His left side was bruised, and he was injured internally. He will die.

A Mystery of the Northwest. ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 3.—The Pioneer Press learns from Duluth that the house of Louis Ploight, an aged bachelor, who lived alone in the country near there, burned early yesterday morning. A few whitened bones in the ruins indicated that Ploight lost his life. He was in town a few days ago and drew $1,800 from the bank. Foul play is feared.

Stiff Sentence for a Small Theft. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Oct. 3.—Friday morning Judge Windfield sentenced John Kelly and Peter Bulger to three years in the penitentiary a Michigan City and fined them $500 each for stealing a coat and satchel, the aggregate value of $20, belonging to Samuel R. White, an Illinois traveling man.

Archbishop Corrigan Celebrates. NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Archbishop Corrigan to-day celebrated the seventh anniversary of his elevation to the archbishopric and transfer from Newark, N. J., to New York. Mass was celebrated at the cathedral and afterward a reception to the priests of the diocese was held at the palace.

Dynamite in a Strike. URBANSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 3.—The large boiler and pump at Bliss & Marshall's works were blown to pieces by dynamite on Thursday night. The employees have been on a strike for several weeks, and it is supposed that the outrage was committed by some of the strikers.
